Going to See the Play

Shakespeare for Kids

RELAXED PERFORMANCE
THEATRE GUIDE
I am going to Pennsylvania Shakespeare Festival theatre to see the play Shakespeare for Kids.
Main Stage theatre

The theatre I will be going to see Shakespeare for Kids in is the Main Stage Theatre.
crowds

Many people will be at the theater to see the play. The theater and theater lobby may be crowded. I can go to the quiet area if I want to get away from the crowds.
When I get inside the building, I may have to wait in the lobby before the play starts.

The lobby might be crowded and noisy.

There is a break space if I need a break from the lobby noise and crowds.

I can also go outside if the weather is not rainy or cold.
I might have to wait in line to get into the theater, to get to my seat, or to get into the bathroom.
I can get to the bathroom from the lobby.
I can use the bathroom anytime during the play.
The toilets in the bathroom flush automatically.
I will need a ticket to see the play.
I may have to wait in line to get the tickets from the box office.
I will give my ticket to the usher at the door of the theatre.
Ushers are friendly helpers who will:

1. take my ticket, and

2. tell me where I will sit to see the play.
When I go inside the theatre, I will see lots of seats and the stage where the play will be performed.
When I get inside the theatre, I can sit on a red chair facing the stage.
People will clap during the play.
I can clap if I like what I see or hear.
People clap for a short time.
I can cover my ears if the clapping is too loud.
When the play is over, all the actors will come on the stage and bow. This is called a curtain call. Many people will clap to let the actors know how much they liked the play.
When the play is over, I will leave the theatre. The lobby will be crowded after the play.
Credits

Roger Ideishi, JD, OT/L, FAOTA
Occupational Therapy Program Director & Associate Professor
Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Remy Binder, Vivian Hin, Christina Neroni, and Joanna Reed
Masters in Occupational Therapy Students, Temple University

Christina Smith
Design Inspiration

Anelise Diaz
Education Director
Pennsylvania Shakespeare Festival